Why Marina del Rey?

With chic waterfront hotels, easy access to boating and water activities, a beachfront bike path, and year-round outdoor dining, it's easy to see why Marina del Rey is considered L.A.'s urban coastal playground.

Location: The Marina's proximity to LAX—just 4 miles north—makes our hotels a convenient option for travelers. Additionally, the Marina has quick access to major freeways, putting visitors within an easy drive of L.A.'s top attractions, including Universal Studios Hollywood, the Getty Museum, and Beverly Hills.

Great neighbors: Walk or bike to the world-famous Santa Monica Pier, catch The Circuit, an on-demand shuttle service available daily through a free app that services the Marina plus the Venice Pier and the Abbot Kinney Boulevard shopping district. With its famous amusement pier and great shopping areas, Santa Monica is just a few more miles to the north.

On-the-water fun: Marina del Rey has over 4,600 boat slips, and a number of power yachts and sailboats are available for half-day, full-day, or overnight private charter. Go to visitmdr.com for a current list of those properly licensed to operate out of the Marina. Also enjoy kayak and stand-up paddleboard rentals, sailing classes, sportfishing and parasailing excursions, and year-round weekly public dining cruises with views of the sparkling harbor. In summer, a Water Bus service runs on weekends for just $1.
